

Beauty

Hailing from Toccoa, GA, Stephens Co. Beauty was singing in front of audiences, unintimidated and unafraid at the tender age of 3. After graduating HS with Honors, she enrolled in the University of Georgia's School of Music. While at UGA she served as President of the Zeta Psi Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. After college, during an audition in Atlanta, GA, "Marvelous" Marvin McIntyre (Marvelous Development Center) recruited Beauty for a 5-Girl Pop Group called ROXXI. Later that same year, ROXXI began their European Promotional Tour, opening for mega-stars, Destiny's Child, and Atlanta's own, 112. ROXXI recorded with producer Shekspere (Red Zone Entertainment, Spere Records), who produced such No. 1 hits as "Bills Bills Bills" for Destiny's Child, and "No Scrubs" for legendary recording artists TLC. Beauty has performed in the same industry circles as Beyoncé, Kelly Rowland, Monica, TLC, OutKast, Goodie Mob, Raven-Symoné, Kelly Price, Tasha Cobbs, Debra Killings, Canton Jones, and Akon. Beauty has also recorded and performed songs written and produced by the Grammy Award-winning Kandi Burruss of Xscape (RHOA) and the legendary, Dallas Austin. Along with Actress & Former Host of "The View", Sherri Shepherd, Beauty was featured in the book, After the Altar Call: "The Sisters' Guide to Developing a Personal Relationship With God" by Jacqueline J. Holness. Beauty also performed at the 2012 Democratic National Convention, showcasing several songs off her solo album project. Currently, Beauty is a National Television Commercial Actress & Print Model recently featured in the national ad campaign for fitness franchise, Workout Anytime; she also performs across the US as a Recording Artist, Musical Director, and as a Celebrity Vocal Coach, with one of her most recent celebrity clients to include new recording artist Val B. King, granddaughter of legendary Blues icon, BB King. Beauty was most recently in the studio with platinum producer/songwriter and recording artist Nate Butler producing and writing her solo project. This album will be a must-have! So stay tuned.
